Intimations

Remembrance Sunday: The service this morning will finish in time for people to walk to the War Memorial for the short Wreath Laying Ceremony.

Retiral Offering: The offering for Asia Link after last Sunday's Communion service raised £101.10. David Clark

Free-will Offering Envelopes: To all who give using the envelopes, the 2027 FWO envelopes will be available for collection after the service today, Sunday 8th November.

Messy Church: Needed for a craft activity in December's Messy Church, we would like any waste jam jars that you care to donate. There is a box for them in the Lower Hall.

Blythswood: Our boxes were uplifted on Wednesday and a final total of 181 are on their way to Europe together with £543 towards the transportation costs. Thanks to all for your donations, however big or small. The Blythswood Team

Puppet Team: Graham and Pamela Shankland are inviting anyone interested in joining a church puppet team (or finding out more about it or having a try of a puppet) to have a word with them after a morning service at the front of the church. Alternatively email office@wkpc.church and they'll get back to you. It's a fun and rewarding ministry.

Christmas Choir: We will sing two pieces on Sunday 20th December. Practices will be held at 12:00 after morning services on Sundays 22nd and 29th November. Any queries to Simon on 07845 151764 or email dr.simon.jeffery@gmail.com.

Micro Talks: is a highly popular community storytelling event organized by the local group Creative Works (part of Craft Town Scotland). We host it here in WKPC. All are welcome. 4.00pm on Saturday 21st November.

Movie Night: Our next free Movie Night for young people is on Friday 27th November at 6.30pm. Bring your favourite snacks, a cosy blanket or cushion and a parent/ guardian. Popcorn and juice are provided! Rhona Clark

Christmas Bookstall: There will be a Christmas bookstall on Sunday 22nd and 29th November after the service.

Dates for your Diary

Saturday 21st November	4.00pm	MicroTalks
Friday 27th November	6.30pm	Movie Night
